

Who needs the devil
(when you're already in hell)

Listen,

Let me tell ya, I tell you the truth
That's how the story goes, sad but true
I went to a bar for a drink or two
When this lady said: I was looking just for you!
Come on get closer, closer to me
Yeah it feels like I'm in good company
Maybe baby, your dreams come true
We've got nothing, nothing to lose

And tonight it feels so heavenly right
Being here with you tonight
But I'm trapped like in a prison cell
And she will get straight back to hell

Who needs the devil?

Tell me who? (I guess you)

Who needs the devil?

Tell me who needs the devil when you're already in hell?

Well now, now that the fire already burns
It hurts like hell to make a turn (no return)
No time for frays and our evil ways
Cross with fingers I cannot linger

Tonight I won't accept your bite
No blood sucking tonight, I break out
Now take your evil bell
I will send you straight back to hell

Who needs the devil?
Tell me who? (I guess you)
Who needs the devil?
Tell me who needs the devil when you're already in hell?

Yeah
Tell me who, I guess you
There's no return
Yeah

Solo

Who needs the devil?
Tell me who?
I guess you?!
Who needs the devil?
Tell me who needs the devil
when you're already in hell?

Who needs the devil?
Tell me who baby

Who needs the devil?
Is it you, yeah, yeah
Who needs the devil, tell me
when you're already in hell?
